Innovation financial autonomy in public university: Vietnam University of Commerce

Pham Xuan Tuyen

Major: Economic Management

Publishing year: 2014

Supervisor: Nguyen Thuy Anh

Research purposes:

- Purpose of the study:

  To analyze the status of implementation of financial autonomy at Vietnam University of Commerce, pointed out the achievements and limitations of this work, on that basis, some suggestions solutions contribute to improve financial autonomy at public universities in general and Vietnam University of Commerce in particular.

- Research task:

  - Study some theoretical issues of financial autonomy at public universities in Vietnam.

  - Analyze and assess the status of implementation of financial autonomy under Decree No.43/2006/ND-CP of Commerce at the University.

  - Suggest some innovative solutions, complete financial autonomy at public universities in Vietnam in general and Trade University in particular.

New contributions:

- In terms of reasoning, the thesis clarifies the nature of financial autonomy, financial autonomy (Decree 43/2006/ND-CP), giving lessons of some of the University of degree of perfection of the mechanism TCTC, has launched a special indicators to assess the effects of the initial mechanism TCTC. Such as size, capital structure, cost structure, the structure of the teaching staff and the ratio of students to faculty, land area;...

- In terms of practice: situation analysis, advantages and disadvantages, as well as the successes and constraints in the implementation of financial autonomy at the University of Commerce. Since then, suggest some innovative solution to complete financial autonomy at public universities in Vietnam in general and universities in particular trade.