Province developing sustainable agriculture in Thai Binh Province

Nguyen Thi Thanh Hoa

Major: Political Economics

Publishing year: 2013

Supervisor: Assoc.Prof.Dr. Pham Van Dung

Research purposes:

* The Purpose

Dissertations go deep to research the reality situation of agricultural development in Thai Binh Province and gives the solution to local agricultural development towards sustainability in the future.

* Mission

- Formulated the basic problems of sustainable development agricultural sustainable development, from the point of theory and practice

- Research experience to develop sustainable agriculture in some localities.

- Analyze the real situation of sustainable agricultural development in the province of Thai Binh and the issues raised

- Suggestions and solutions to develop sustainable agriculture in Thai Binh Province in the coming time.

New contributions:

- Codification is the argument about agricultural development towards sustainability in the new context of the country and the world.

- Experience developing sustainable agriculture by some provinces, countries around the world. On that basis, the essay draws lessons learned for the Thai Binh Province.

- Situation analysis about the development of sustainable agriculture in Thai Binh Province.

- Take out the points of view, the solution to develop sustainable agriculture in Thai Binh Province in the coming time.